E. G. Farnsworth,

Washington, N.H.

Dear Brother Farnsworth,--

It has been impossible for us to show Sister White your letter, as she has not been well for a number of days. Then, too, it would be practically useless to worry her with this matter as many such letters have come to her before, and she has told us that she has no special light from the Lord concerning this matter. But she has said at such times, that in her judgment it would be far wiser to use the individual cups in these days of disease and sickness, and she seems to see no reason why any one need to object to this precaution. This is simply her judgment, as the Lord has never given her any special light concerning the matter; therefore this is all that we can say to you at this time. We trust that the Lord will give you wisdom to know just what course to pursue.

Yours in the Master's service,

Sara McEnterfer
